

Faith Free Church 2012 Elective Series

Sundays
January & February
10:30-11:30am

Every part of Scripture is God-breathed and useful one way or another—showing us truth, exposing our rebellion, correcting our mistakes, training us to live God's way.

II Timothy 3:16 Msg

These classes will be offered in place of our regular Adult Bible Fellowships beginning Jan 1st and concluding Feb 26th. Whether you are currently involved in an ABF or not, we invite you to join us in one of the following classes.

Topic: Jonah: The Prophet of God

Teacher: Mark Sybrant Location: Fellowship Hall

While it may appear that we can run or hide from God, we are only fooling ourselves. Our role may not be as dramatic as Jonah's but we have a duty to God to carry it out to the best of our ability. Do you feel you have been swallowed up?

Topic: Sermon on the Mount

Teacher: Peter Hafner Location: Building I, Rm D

The Sermon on the Mount may be one of the best known sections of the entire Bible. Yet it is also one of the least understood and applied in today's church. It is not a sermon about an ideal life in an ideal world, but a life to be lived through the grace of God to reveal the gospel of God to a fallen world. The sermon reveals to us what it means to be a Christian, what is a righteous lifestyle, what our relationship should be like—with God, family, fellow believers and the world. Jesus teaches us how to pray, worship, deal with anxiety and live. Come and build your house on a solid foundation.

Topic: Helping Without Hurting

Teacher: Larry Green Location: Music Room

How to alleviate poverty without hurting the poor and yourself...How to transform our good intentions into genuine change. Approximate cost for the book is $10

Topic: Little House on the Freeway: Help for the Hurried Home

Teacher: Pastor Ed Sutter Location: Chapel

If you ever feel as though your schedule is hurried, your expectations are extraordinary and you and your family's commitments are too many to count, this class is for you. The class is not about going back in time to the "Little House on the Prairie", but it is about recognizing the challenges that come from having your house close to the freeway of life. It's about finding balance between busyness and rest. Video Assisted.

Topic: Outlive Your Life

Teacher: Pastor Al Perkins Location: Building I, Rm B

These are difficult days in our world's history. The poor, hunger, disease are affecting people every day. God has given us an opportunity to make a big difference. What if we rocked the world with hope? We are created by a great God to do great works. He invited us to outlive our lives, not just in heaven, but here on earth. Learn to live your life in such a way that the world will be glad you did.

Topic: What's Your Version?

Teacher: Dave Crockett Location: Building I, Rm A

Most church doctrinal positions, concerning the Bible, make the following statement: "We believe in the Verbal (word for word), Plenary (total) inspiration of the scriptures in their original writings". How do we know these ancient biblical words in your version are true for us today? In this study you will learn the why, how, and accuracy of the Bible in your hand.

Topic: Marriage 101

Teacher: Kirk Robinson Location: Room 204

This course goes straight to the heart of the crucial issues that face marriages today. In this class you will deal with marital expectations, communication, emotional intimacy, personality differences, conflict resolution, spiritual intimacy, relating with money and sexual intimacy. Great course for newly married couples and seasoned veterans. Video Assisted.

Topic: Exercising Faith During Financial Challenges

Teacher: Mikeal Davis Location: Conference Room

This class will look at contemporary issues facing the American economy and our personal finances. These issues can rock our faith in God, or strengthen it. Develop your faith so that you can walk through challenging times.
